

Dear F.C.C.:
According to press
coverage recently (N.Y.Times),
Sinclair
Broadcasting is going to require
their stations to give air time to a virulantly
anti-Kerry
smear-documentary
during the week
preceeding the November election.
Since Sinclair has free access to the public airwaves,
isn't it required to avoid overt partisanship (except when airing a paid
commercial messge)?.
The best interests
of our Republic are ill-served by media giants like Sinclair
who use their clout illegally for partisan political objectives.
I hope the F.C.C. is aware that average
citizens like myself
expect it to review
Sinclair
Broadcasting's
record of "fair play" when their license comes up for renewal. The airwaves are not the property of either
political party!
Thank you!
J.B. Means
